

Project Configuration Management on a Project's Main Screen

Changing a Project Name

When you hover the mouse cursor over the project name, the background colour of the project name will change.
By clicking it, you can enter the project name.
After entering, press the green check button to change the project name.

Registering a Category

When you point to the category name next to the 'Category:' field, the background colour of the category name will change.
By clicking it, you can select the project category.
After selecting, press the green check button to register the category.

- Selectable categories
(Analysis, Communication, Data, Hypothesis, Instrumentation, Methods and Measures, Procedure, Project, Software, Other, Uncategorized)

Registering a Project Description

Click the string 'Add a brief description to your project' next to the 'Description:' field. If you have already registered the description, the background colour will change by clicking the description text.
When you click it, a text field will be displayed. You can enter or change the description.

After selecting, press the green check button to register the description.
